Synopsis

A 19-year-old man has just stood trial for the fatal stabbing of his father. This intense drama begins after closing arguments have been presented and a 12-person jury is set to begin deliberations where a guilty verdict means an automatic death sentence. It looks like an open and shut case, until one of the jurors begins to sow a seed of reasonable doubt. The story quickly becomes a study of the jurors' complex personalities as the audience witnesses the various testimonies and the murder re-enacted. The debate escalates, arguments grow heated and these people become
